Word Finder

BEFORE DISCUSSION:

Identify at least five challenging or interesting words from your reading assignment. Be able to explain the meaning, how it fits into your story, and why you chose that particular word.

Below, write a great discussion question to ask during your group's meeting. Have a few ideas ready to start the discussion, too.

DURING DISCUSSION:

Read the sentence from the book. Then have each person tell what he or she thinks the word means before you share the definition.

Ask your group your discussion question. Prompt your group with ideas if they are struggling to answer.
