

6WM - Six Attempts

DIRECTIONS: Attempt writing your own story in exactly six words. For each attempt, use one word per line.

CHALLENGE: Avoid using the following words: the, a, an, and, I, it, of, for, _____

Attempt #1

Attempt #2

Attempt #3

Attempt #4

Attempt #5

Attempt #6

This Is Me

DIRECTIONS: These sentences need endings. Complete each one so that they tell how you actually feel.

CHALLENGE: Make each ending exactly SIX words long.

SENTENCE STARTER	ENDING
EXAMPLE: I am most proud of...	helping my students become lifelong learners.
I am happiest when...
I get angry when...
I am frightened by...
I feel love when...
I get excited when...
I am bored when...
I am ashamed when...
I am most proud of...
I put trust in...
I am bothered by...
I feel safe when...
I feel peaceful when...
I feel hurt when...
I am inspired by...	